

March, 23. 2007

Notice of the Company's starting a new business

The company has worked on technological development to recover pure ruthenium from the ruthenium target used to the hard disks. Recently the success in such ruthenium recycling was confirmed in the company.

Then, we are pleased to inform you that it is scheduled to commence the ruthenium recycling in this coming May as the company's new business.